

RULES OF PROBATION

JOHNSON CIRCUIT COURT - JUVENILE AND FAMILY COURT DIVISION

JUVENILE NAME:

CAUSE NO:

PROBATION OFFICER:

TERM OF PROBATION:

Probation is a privilege granted to you by the Court. By agreeing to be placed on probation, you have waived the following rights: self-incrimination and search and seizure as provided by U.S. and Indiana Constitutions.

It is your responsibility to obey the following rules:

1. Obey laws. You must obey all laws.
2. Obey your parents at all times. You must have your parent's permission to be away from home. At all times, your parents must know where you are, who you are with, what time you will return, and what you are doing.
3. No weapons. You may not possess any weapons.
4. Attend appointments. You must keep all appointments with your Probation Officer, be cooperative, and truthfully answer all reasonable questions.
5. Allow searches. You will allow a Probation Officer or Law Enforcement Officer to visit or search you or your property at any and all times.
6. No use of intoxicating or illegal substances. You must not consume or possess any intoxicating substance unless prescribed by a licensed physician, and you must not be in the company of anyone using or possessing intoxicating substances in an illegal manner. Any tobacco products found in your possession will be confiscated. I understand that I am not to be in possession of or consume any CBD products.
7. Drug screens. You must submit to a urine drug screen or breathalyzer upon request by a Probation Officer and will be responsible for the costs of these tests.
8. Obey your curfew. You must be home by 9:00 p.m. on weeknights and 10:00 p.m. on weekends, unless you are with a parent or other responsible adult approved by your parent, or required by your employment and approved by your parent and your Probation Officer.
9. No overnight stays. You may not stay the night away from your home or with other juveniles without prior approval of your Probation Officer.
10. Out of state travel prohibited. You may not travel out of Indiana without prior approval of your Probation Officer.
11. Attend school or work regularly. You must be enrolled in school unless you are employed full time. You must conduct yourself according to the school or employer's policy. If you are in school, your grades must reflect your best effort. If you are suspended or expelled from school, you will report to The Dickinson Juvenile Justice Center for Day Reporting the following day, and your participation in Day Reporting will continue for the length of your suspension or expulsion, or as determined by your probation officer. The fee for this program is $5.00 per day. By signing this document and agreeing to these rules, you hereby release the County of Johnson, Indiana, and any elected official, employee, person, or participating agency affiliated with Day Reporting for any injuries or accidents that may occur as a result of participation in the program. Further, you understand and give consent for your child to be transported on occasion by a Day Reporting staff person to local community service sites as required by program participation.
12. Notify your Probation Officer. You must notify your Probation Officer within 24 hours of any change of address, telephone number, school, or employment, or any contact with any Law Enforcement Agency.
13. Programs. You must follow all rules and conditions and pay any fees and costs for any program(s) your court order requires:

14. Additional requirements. If your Probation Officer reasonably believes that any of the following specific additional requirements, services, or activities are necessary for the successful completion of your probation, you must complete, perform, or undergo such services within a reasonable period of time as directed by your Probation Officer.

Your Probation Officer may:

- A. Restrict your location, including through electronic monitoring, for up to 30 days;
- B. Restrict your activities or privileges for up to 60 days;
- C. Assign an essay, apology letter, or other written project;
- D. Require additional screening for alcohol or drugs;
- E. Require participation in additional non-secure programs;
- F. Conduct a family group meeting or administrative conference;
- G. Require completion of 2 to 20 hours of additional community service work;
- H. Extend your probation to complete programs or requirements. If you disagree, you have the right to have the matter submitted to the Court for a decision.

15. Release of information. You must sign the Probation Release of Information form.

16. Costs and fees. You must pay all fees and costs assessed by the Court by the end of your probation term.

17. Special Conditions. You are ordered to comply with the following special conditions:

A.

I have had the above rules given in writing and explained to me. I understand all conditions and rules and agree to follow these rules. I know that breaking these rules could result in Court action and/or placement in Juvenile Detention. The undersigned agree and hereby consent to the entry of a monetary judgment or lien against the undersigned for any outstanding fines, fees, costs, and restitution. The judgment or lien may be entered by the Court following the filing of a written request by the Johnson County Probation Department or the Johnson County Prosecutor's Office to the Court.

Dated:

Juvenile Signature

As a parent or guardian, it is my responsibility to:

- 1. Inform the Probation Department of any violation of these rules and take reasonable steps to insure that my child is properly supervised.
- 2. Provide a proper role model for my child and refrain from violating the law.
- 3. At all times cooperate with my child's Probation Officer and answer all reasonable questions from any Court representative.
- 4. Share financial responsibility for all Court Costs and Program Fees with my child.

I have had the above rules given in writing and explained to me. I understand all conditions and I know that breaking these rules could result in Court Action and/or placement of my child in the Juvenile Detention Center. I agree to waive my constitutional rights and allow reasonable search of my home or any vehicle operated by me or my child by any Juvenile Court representative to ensure my child's compliance with these rules. The undersigned agree and hereby consent to the entry of a monetary judgment or lien against the undersigned for any outstanding fines, fees, costs, and restitution. The judgment or lien may be entered by the Court following the filing of a written request by the Johnson County Probation Department or the Johnson County Prosecutor's Office to the Court.
